

Florida Local Government Information Systems Association Conference – CPTL Graduates

In recognition of their accomplishment, graduates of the Certified Public Technology Leadership program (either CPTM or CGCIO), and those who have kept their certification current and meet membership eligibility, whose jurisdiction are not members of the Florida Local Government Information Systems Association may attend conferences at the member registration rate.

Approved by the FLGISA Board of Directors on September 9, 2016.